Animal Adaptations

- 1. Explain the difference between predator and prey.
- 2. How does the porcupine fish defend itself?
- 3. What are adaptations?
- 4. Define and give an example:
 - a. Structural Adaptations -
 - b. Behavioral Adaptations -
- 5. Describe an aardvark's food-related adaptations.
- 6. Animals often rely on a simple technique -- ______ -- to defend themselves.
- 7. What strategy does the armadillo use to protect itself?
- 8. Describe how animals use camouflage to defend themselves.
- 9. What is mimicry? Give an example.

- 10. How do toads and frogs adapt to living in hot, dry climates?
- 11. Describe three ways that cheetahs have adapted to their environment.

- 12. What are variations in species?
- 13. How have pandas avoided extinction?
- 14. What is a habitat?
- 15. How have koalas avoided extinction?
- 16. What is an introduced species?
- 17. How might introduced species be harmful to an ecosystem?
- 18. What adaptation helps polar bears and seals survive in very cold climates?
- 19. After making a discovery or developing a theory, a scientist needs to ______ the information with others.